DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to all seekers of knowledge and to all my covenant partners in the ministry. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My special thanks go to God Almighty for His continuous love and protection showered on me all these past years.

I am particularly appreciative of my lovely wife, Rev. (Mrs.) Florence Chigbundu and my four energetic sons, Emmanuel, Faith, Mike and David for their consistent support all these years.

I must not forget to thank Mrs. Smart Nwokoro and her Editorial team for the editing of this book.

Worthy of appreciations are the following people: Pastor Moses Onodua for painstakingly proof reading this book.

Also worth of mentions are: Pastor Lucky Ehizokhale, Deacon C.C. Isaiah and Pastor Matthew Wilson for their invaluable contributions towards the production of this book.

May God richly reward you all in Jesus name. Amen.

INTRODUCTION

Spiritual Check Point gives us insight to what the realm of the spirit looks like. i.e. what happens to our prayers, why prayers are not answered, and why or where our goods are kept.

In 2 Corinthians 10:3 the bible says, "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh". This passage indicates that there is war in the spiritual realm, and that what happens to us in the physical takes place in the realms of the spirit first.

Your ability to identify what goes wrong and how to fight it gives you victory in spiritual warfare. The enemy's strategies include attacking us in our ignorance without us even knowing where the attack is coming from.

There are three words of warfare which include; pursue, overtake and recover. As recorded in 1 Samuel 30:8 "it is possible for a man to pursue and not to overtake and not to recover. why? Because he doesn't know what he is pursuing after. If you want to recover all, you should be able to know where all your goods are located. The commencement of your breakthrough also signals the commencement of a spiritual battle.

In 1 Samuel 30:11, when David and his men pursued after their enemy, they found an Egyptian boy; who was brought to David and he showed compassion on him. The same way too, in spiritual war, you will come to a point of identifying an Egyptian boy, don't ignore such people; you do not need to ignore those ahead of you nor those below you. Certain people are planted on your way to success. So you don't need to ignore them.

If God opens your eyes to see where your wealth is located, you will change your pattern of prayer. We discover in order to recover. You get to know your target, so as to have victory in spiritual warfare.

The reason spiritual check point was established is to frustrate believers. The spiritual checkpoint is where witches operate with the aid of ancestral powers and family controlling powers.

The Chapters in this book will give you a clear picture of what is happening in the spiritual check point and how your goods are being released from Heaven and detained at spiritual check points by demonic forces.

All you need do is that after going through the Chapters, and having understood the ways these demonic powers operates, you may need to clear your goods.

To do this, you need to apply the word, the Blood, and the Name of Jesus as well as the Anointing of the Holy Spirit. But, before you clear your goods, you need to check yourself if there is any spiritual problem associated with you, which must be dealt with, then you link up with the Holy Ghost, and invade the territory and say to them, enough is enough! I see you receiving all your goods held bound in any spiritual checkpoint in Jesus name. Amen.

CHAPTER ONE

WAR IN THE HEAVENLIES

The devil is a war-monger. He is a veteran of sorts, who has fought relentlessly for over six thousand years, without recording any victory. But isn't it strange that one who has suffered the greatest defeat in history has refused to stop fighting?

The devil has suffered many devastating blows since God created him. However, two of these devastating blows still remain most outstanding.

The first one was when he was defeated by the Almighty that is when he revolted in heaven and led two third of the heavenly host, now fallen angels, to join in his rebellion and vain efforts to unseat Almighty God.

The second one was when he was defeated on the cross by the second Adam, Jesus Christ, from whom he could not recover the authority he had stolen from the first Adam. The second Adam has retaken that authority which the first Adam lost, but the devil had failed in retaking it from him.

Let us take a look at what had happened and how the devil was finished in the first war.

“And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world, he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.” (Revelation 12:7-9).

Here, we see how the devil had miscalculated by fighting a vain battle against Almighty God. He lost out and this defeat was monumental and still remains as such.

Together with his cohorts, Satan, the devil were flushed out of heaven and banished from the place of glory. He was cast out and brought down to earth and was consigned to the place of ignominy. Thus banished from heaven, Satan bared his fangs and has continued to unleash all sorts of wickedness upon men and women on planet earth. Presently, Satan and his cohorts pour their venom on men and women, no matter their age and station in life.

“Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.” (Revelation 12:12).

It is important to note that Satan, the devil, directs his attacks and wickedness more on those who are averse to his kingdom the true children of God. These are the only ones who are a match to his ruthless attacks against the whole of mankind.
